

Тем, что эта книга дошла до Вас, мы обязаны в первую очередь библиотекарям, которые долгие годы бережно хранили её. Сотрудники Google оцифровали её в рамках проекта, цель которого – сделать книги со всего мира доступными через Интернет.

Эта книга находится в общественном достоянии. В общих чертах, юридически, книга передаётся в общественное достояние, когда истекает срок действия имущественных авторских прав на неё, а также если правообладатель сам передал её в общественное достояние или не заявил на неё авторских прав. Такие книги – это ключ к прошлому, к сокровищам нашей истории и культуры, и к знаниям, которые зачастую нигде больше не найдёшь.

В этой цифровой копии мы оставили без изменений все рукописные пометки, которые были в оригинальном издании. Пускай они будут напоминанием о всех тех руках, через которые прошла эта книга – автора, издателя, библиотекаря и предыдущих читателей – чтобы наконец попасть в Ваши.

Правила пользования

Мы гордимся нашим сотрудничеством с библиотеками, в рамках которого мы оцифровываем книги в общественном достоянии и делаем их доступными для всех. Эти книги принадлежат всему человечеству, а мы – лишь их хранители. Тем не менее, оцифровка книг и поддержка этого проекта стоят немало, и поэтому, чтобы и в дальнейшем предоставлять этот ресурс, мы предприняли некоторые меры, чтобы предотвратить коммерческое использование этих книг. Одна из них – это технические ограничения на автоматические запросы.

Мы также просим Вас:

- Не использовать файлы в коммерческих целях. Мы разработали программу Поиска по книгам Google для всех пользователей, поэтому, пожалуйста, используйте эти файлы только в личных, некоммерческих целях.
- Не отправлять автоматические запросы. Не отправляйте в систему Google автоматические запросы любого рода. Если Вам требуется доступ к большим объёмам текстов для исследований в области машинного перевода, оптического распознавания текста, или в других похожих целях, свяжитесь с нами. Для этих целей мы настоятельно рекомендуем использовать исключительно материалы в общественном достоянии.
- Не удалять логотипы и другие атрибуты Google из файлов. Изображения в каждом файле помечены логотипами Google для того, чтобы рассказать читателям о нашем проекте и помочь им найти дополнительные материалы. Не удаляйте их.
- Соблюдать законы Вашей и других стран. В конечном итоге, именно Вы несёте полную ответственность за Ваши действия – поэтому, пожалуйста, убедитесь, что Вы не нарушаете соответствующие законы Вашей или других стран. Имейте в виду, что даже если книга более не находится под защитой авторских прав в США, то это ещё совсем не значит, что её можно распространять в других странах. К сожалению, законодательство в сфере интеллектуальной собственности очень разнообразно, и не существует универсального способа определить, как разрешено использовать книгу в конкретной стране. Не рассчитывайте на то, что если книга появилась в поиске по книгам Google, то её можно использовать где и как угодно. Наказание за нарушение авторских прав может оказаться очень серьёзным.

CORNARO, Lewis. Discourses on a sober and temperate Life. By Lewis Cornaro, a noble Venetian. Translated from the Italian Original. London, 1768. 8vo. 3s. 6d.

A good translation of a valuable and well known work. The 81st Edition 1818. 12mo. 2s. Mr. Abernethy, in his excellent Work on the digestive Organs, &c. makes the following observations:— 'It would be well if the Public would follow the advice of Mr. Addison, given in the Spectator (no. 195), on reading the writings of Lewis Cornaro, who having naturally a weak constitution, which he seemed to have ruined by intemperance, so that he was expected to die at the age of thirty-five, did at that period adopt a strict regimen, allowing himself only twelve ounces of food daily. By this plan of diet he lived to more than one hundred years; and it is delightful to observe the tranquil, cheerful, and energetic state of mind accompanying his bodily health, and in a great measure induced by it.' Sir John Sinclair in his Code of Health and Longevity, mentions an edition of 1770, as the best English translation of Cornaro's works.

DEFOE, Daniel. The Weekly Review. London, 1704-13. 4to. 9 vols.

The first number of this periodical publication, (far superior to any thing which had hitherto appeared) was printed on the 19th of Feb. 1704, repeated every Saturday and Tuesday until 1705, and after that three times a week until its termination in May 1713. A complete set is probably not now in existence. A copy from Feb. 19, 1704, to March 23, 1710, is in the British Museum. This work paved the way for, and set the example of that species of writing soon afterwards carried to its perfection in the Tatlers and Spectators.

— The Life and strange surprising Adventures of Robinson Crusoe, of York, Mariner. Written by himself.

This is the most popular, delightful, and extraordinary of all Defoe's Works, and has lost none of its original attraction, even at the distance of a century. Dr. Johnson observed 'no body ever laid down without wishing it were longer.' It first appeared in a periodical publication, entitled The Original London Post, or Heathcote's Intelligence, from Nos. 125 to no. 289 inclusively: the latter, dated 7 October 1719. There were not fewer than three editions of that year, with an abridgment in 12mo. of the same date. Defoe, says Mr. Park, has been charged with surreptitiously appropriating the papers of Alexander Selkirk (See SELKIRK) to the formation of this celebrated work: but the charge, though repeatedly and confidently brought, appears to be destitute of foundation.

DIBDIN, Thomas Frognall, D.D. Bibliomania; or Book-Madness: a bibliographical Romance in Six Parts. London, 1811. 8vo.

The Bibliomania, is written in dialogues or conversations, the characters introduced are well-known book collectors of the author's acquaintance. The great value of the work is in the notes, which abound with anecdotes of Books and Book Collectors, and an account of the rarer articles in their collections and the prices at which they were sold, extracted from the sale catalogues. This work has in a great degree given a stimulus to the collecting of our early literature, and bibliography in this country; on which subjects it will be always consulted as a first authority.—The characters personified are Aurelius, G. Chalmers, Esq.; Atticus, Richard Heber, Esq.; Alfonso, —; Bernardo, J. Haslewood, Esq.; Gonzalo, J. Dent, Esq.; Hortensius, W. Bolland, Esq.; Leonte, J. Some copies have the words "Book Madness" in the title page, printed in red. It was published at 1*l.* 7*s.* and has brought 8*l.* 8*s.* Eighteen copies only were printed upon LARGE PAPER, in two volumes imperial octavo, in which was inserted a portrait of the author, in a clerical habit, engraved by Freeman after Masquerier, ætatis xxxv

This forms the seventh volume of the Bibliotheca Spenceriana, and contains many rare and curious articles printed in the fifteenth century, not described in the former volumes. The author in the preface states 'that the descriptions contained in the seven volumes occupy nearly 3000 pages,' and adds, 'When the STUDY of BIBLIOGRAPHY shall be more generally cultivated, its uses will be more generally acknowledged. It will be found to rank among those branches of antiquarian research, which are as conducive to correct taste, and useful intelligence as any other. I have done every thing in my power to establish, on a firm foundation, the celebrity of a LIBRARY, of which the remembrance can only perish with every other record of individual fame.' At the end is given a general Index to the seven volumes.

This work contains much curious information respecting the MSS. and rare works in public and private libraries abroad. This plate was destroyed after fifty impressions were taken off. Another plate of the Comte de Brienne was engraved as an additional illustration. DUGDALE, Sir William, Knt. Monasticon Anglicanum per Rogerum Dodsworth & Gulielmum Dugdale. Londini, 1655, 61, 73. folio. 3 vols.

This work contains chiefly the foundation-charters of the monasteries at their first erection, the donation-charters in after times being purposely omitted: the publication was productive of many law-suits, by the revival of old writings; and the puritans were highly offended at it, as they looked upon it as a preparatory step to introducing popery. Some interesting remarks on the work occur in the Life, Diary, and Correspondence of the Author.

— The Baronage of England: or, an historical Account of the Lives and most memorable Actions of our English Nobility. London, 1675-6. folio. 3 vols. in 2.

The Rev. Jos. Hunter, in his History of Hallamshire, characterizes the Baronage, as a work abounding in the most valuable information, and far less inaccurate than a first attempt of the kind might reasonably be expected, where one object was to recall many half-perished names, and to arrange them in exact genealogical order, a work which none can comprehend the nicety and difficulty, but those who have actually made the experiment. 'The Baronage is distinguished by the most laborious research and extraordinary accuracy, and confers honor upon its author.'—Nicolas. Another gentleman, well qualified to write on the subject, thus notices it 'A work which, notwithstanding its partial defects, and the inaccuracies inseparable from so laborious an undertaking, will exist to the latest age, a monument of its author's historical knowledge and antiquarian learning. Of those who have followed his steps, though some have been liberal in their censure, all have proved the value of his labours by the extensive use they have made of the greater portion of his statements.'—Sir M. M. Sykes, pt. i. 1089, russia, 5l. 2s. 6d. Bindley, pt. i. 1665, 8l. Brockett, 1055, morocco, 8l. 15s. Marquis of Townshend, 1054, morocco, 16l. 5s. Roxburghe, 8596, blue turkey, 15l. 10s. Dr. Johnson being asked by Boswell whether he should read this work, replied 'Why yes as one reads such a book: that is to say, consult it.' Duhalde, who was never in China himself, has drawn his materials from a variety of sources, especially from the printed and manuscript account of the missionaries; but he has failed to exercise a sound judgment, and a scrupulous examination into the truth of many facts and opinions which he has admitted into his work.

HAKLUYT, Richard. The principal Navigations, Voyages and Discoveries made by the English Nation. London, 1589. folio.

This volume, which has the advantage of an index, differs materially from the first volume of the edition 1598-1600. Sir M. M. Sykes, pt. i. 1369, russia, 1l. 11s. Roscoe, 507, 1l. 14s. It consists of 825 pages, besides dedication to Sir F. Walsingham, Knt. to the reader, some commendatory verses, a table and index. In the preface Hakluyt states that he had intended to insert an account of Sir F. Drake's voyage, but that he had been 'seriously delt withall, not to anticipate, or prevent another man's paines,' and had 'yeilded' unto his friends. It appears, however, that he printed the account privately. Jadis, 339, with a map referred to in the preface, not known to exist in any other copy, and an account of Sir F. Drake's Voyage, 6 leaves inserted between pp. 643 & 644, 26l. 5s.

A masterly analysis of these satires will be found in Warton's History of English Poetry. Pope, on presenting Mr. West with a copy, observed that he esteemed them the best poetry and truest satire in the English language, and that he had an intention of modernizing them as he had done some of Donne's satires. Annexed are 'Certaine worthe manuscript Poems, of great antiquitie, reserved long since in the studie of a Northfolke Gentleman, and now first published by J. S. 1. Thus, to the examples they have in late editions subjoined Bible, instead of the particular part of the Sacred Writings, as Isaiah, Proverbs, &c. and Shakespeare to the examples taken from his works, instead of the particular play. One striking proof of the corruptions which have been introduced, may be found under ache.'—MS. Note by Edmond Malone.

Williams, 992, 3l. 16s. The letters of Junius first appeared in the Public Advertiser, and have attained a great notoriety, not only on account of the ability they display, but from

Lord Sackville on the papers of Junius being imputed to him, replied 'I should be proud to be capable of writing what Junius has done; but there are many passages in his letters I should be very sorry to have written.'
